The Recording & Production Associate is a hybrid role that supports both the Festival's audio recording operations and its stage crew. This position is fully integrated into our four-person production team, balancing the season's duties between recording tasks and general production responsibilities.

Primary recording responsibilities include setting up microphones, running audio cables, assisting with stage mic plots, monitoring live recordings, capturing rehearsals and concerts, assisting with post-production in Pro Tools, and supporting occasional video recording setups as needed.

Primary production responsibilities include stage preparation, stage moves, rehearsal oversight, load-ins/load-outs, moving equipment and instruments, and other general production tasks throughout the six-week season.

Term of employment: July 14 – August 25, 2026. The compensation for the term is $6,000.

Note: Because we know many applicants will be returning to school, we are open to discussing slightly adjusted dates to accommodate individual academic schedules.

How to apply:

Please email cover letter, resume, and two letters of reference to jobs@sfcmf.org.

Please mention the Recording Intern Position in the subject line.

APPLICATION DEADLINE: January 31, 2026.
